Part 1: Read the text and choose True or False (1 point)

New Year is one of the four important traditional festivals in the United States. On New Year's Eve, most of the people go to parties. At twelve o'clock at night, everyone says "Happy New Year!" and they wish their friends and relatives good luck. New Year's parties usually last a long time. Some people don't go home until morning. Another holiday, Halloween, is mainly for children. On this holiday children dress as witches, ghosts or other characters. Most of the children go from house and say "Trick or Treat" if the people at the house do not give them candy, the children will play a trick on them. But this rarely happens. Most people give them candy or fruit.
